

_____ 고등학교 _____ 반 _____ 번 이름 _____

* Listen and fill in the blanks.

1.

W: Why did you _____ the Global Challenger Program?

M: My dream is _____ a journalist. _____ expand my experience through this program.

W: Can you tell me more about your future plans?

M: After high school, I'll _____ to study communication science.

W: Well, you wrote here that you can speak English and Chinese.

M: Yes. I'm not _____ speaking Chinese, though. But I'll keep practicing. I hope to master three foreign languages in ten years.

W: I see. Lastly, I'd like to ask you _____ your biggest goal in life is.

M: Oh, my goal is _____ the Pulitzer Prize as a journalist in twenty years.

2.

M: I heard you went on a family trip last weekend.

W: Yeah. I visited Gochang, and I saw _____ dolmens there.

M: Dolmens? I _____ what they are.

W: They're huge _____ that prehistoric people made.

3.

M: _____ heard about Jikji?

W: Yes, I have. It is the oldest book that _____ movable metal type.

M: Right. It _____ the UNESCO Memory of the World Register.

W: I know it was _____ Dr. Park Byeongseon.

M: You're right. Do you know where Jikji is now?

W: I _____ it is. Maybe in the National Museum of Korea?

M: No. Unfortunately, it's in the National Library of France.

W: Really? _____?

M: A French diplomat bought and _____ France in the early 1900s, and later, it was _____ the library.

W: Oh, _____ is so sad _____ our precious cultural asset is in another country.

M: I feel _____.

4.

W: I've heard that _____ choosing your future career. I agree that planning our future is one of the most important things we have to do _____ a high school student. I'd _____ that you _____ a garden designer. You love plants and flowers, don't you? I believe your interest is _____ to consider when choosing a job. I hope you will be successful, doing what you are interested in.