

_____ 고등학교 _____ 반 _____ 번 이름 _____

 Listen and fill in the blanks.

1.

W: I have never _____ Hong Kong.
_____ it _____?

M: It is famous for its _____.

W: I see. I'm also _____ their language.

M: People there speak English and Chinese.

2.

M: Welcome to the _____ Center. I'm Devin. How can I help you?

W: I'm planning to _____ to Cuba. But I don't know much about the country.

M: Oh, Cuba is a really interesting country. It's _____ its beautiful beaches and many old buildings.

W: Really? Can you _____ Cuba?

M: Havana is the capital of Cuba. It's _____ old cars, bicycles, friendly people, and, of course, music. People _____ everywhere in Havana.

W: Sounds interesting. How about the weather _____?

M: It's hot, even in the evening.

W: I see. I'm also _____ their language.

M: The Cuban people speak Spanish. _____ this brochure? You can get some general information about Cuba _____.

W: Looks great. Thanks for your help.

3.

W: I'm _____ dinner at Jena's house.

M: That's great, but there is one thing _____.

W: Really? What is it?

M: You should not be _____ dinner. And _____ is not good manners, _____.

W: Okay, I will remember that. Can I _____?

M: Of course you can. Chocolate or cookies are always nice _____.

W: I see. Is there _____ I should know?

M: Um... you shouldn't begin eating until the hostess starts or _____.

W: Oh, I didn't know that. Thanks.

4.

W: _____, what gesture do you make?

M: I just _____. Why do you ask that?

W: Nodding your head _____ the same thing everywhere. In Bulgaria, you _____ your head to mean yes.

M: What does the gesture mean there?

W: It means no.

M: Oh, I didn't know that. What gesture should I _____ yes, then?

W: _____ your head. It means yes.

M: Really? That's interesting.