

_____ 고등학교 _____ 반 _____ 번 이름 _____

Listen & Speak 1

M: What is a pinata?

W: A pinata is a paper ball _____ toys and candy. The birthday kid, blindfolded, hits the ball trying to _____ with a stick.

M: It sounds fun.

W: What about you _____ England?

M: My mom always made fortune telling cakes on my birthday.

W: I wonder why they are called fortune telling cakes.

M: We put _____ things in them. For example, if your piece of cake has a coin in it, it means that you will be rich.

Listen & Speak 2

W: Stanley is out _____ his sister. Please come in and have some tea _____ you wait.

M: Thank you. (pause) This tea has a really nice flavor.

W: It's green tea. Can I get you some chocolate cake? I've just _____.

M: No, thank you. I've just had a sandwich.

W: Then, would you like another cup of tea?

M: Oh, that _____ nice.

W: Make yourself _____. Stanley will be back soon.

Level Up Your Speaking

M: Today I want to tell you about some etiquette you should know _____ to a dinner at your American friend's home. First of all, Americans think it is very important to be _____. Don't be late and if you are not able to be on time, call your friend _____. When greeting your friend's parents, a handshake is _____. However, remember to wait for them to offer to shake your hand first. At the dinner table, it is not _____ to reach across the table to pick up food or other items. Ask the person near the item you need to pass it to you.